

1965 CREW LIST
MISS BARDAHL UNLIMITED HYDROPLANE
Bardahl Chemical Corp., 1400 N.W. 52nd St., Seattle, Washington 98107

The following information is supplied to better acquaint you with the men behind the Miss Bardahl's success. Each of these men is an expert in his own right and expends a great deal of time and devotion on Seattle's metallic green unlimited hydroplane.

Leo C. Vanden Berg (47), Seattle - Crew Chief
Bardahl Manufacturing Corporation, Seattle, Washington
9th year with U-hydros. Was on Maverick crew 1957-59. Miss Bardahl, 1960 to present.

Gerald L. "Jerry" Zuvich (24), Seattle
Bardahl Manufacturing Corporation, Seattle, Washington
Miss Bardahl crew - 5th year.

Dixon J. Smith (21), Seattle
Physics Major, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington.
3rd year on Miss Bardahl crew. Previously worked on Hawaii Kai III and Seattle Too crews.

Warren E. "Skip" Schott (22), Seattle
Bardahl Chemical Corporation, Seattle, Washington
Aircraft mechanic. Seven years U-hydro crews. Formerly with Miss Spokane/
Eagle Electric. 1st year Miss Bardahl crew.

Roger H. Kruse (26), Seattle
Truck and diesel mechanic, Los Angeles, Seattle Motor Express, Inc., Seattle.
2nd year Miss Bardahl crew.

David Smith (18), Seattle
Architecture major, University of Washington.
2nd year with Bardahl crew.

---

Miss Bardahl off-season and between races operates out of a specially designed boat shop located adjacent to the main offices of the international additive oil corporation in Seattle.